I wonder why the younger son wanted to run away from home?
I wonder how the father could have reacted when the son came home? How did he respond?
I wonder what this parable teaches us about God the Father?

Lord Jesus Christ,
You died on the cross to show us how much you love and forgive us. Thank you for your gift of forgiveness when we turn away from you and hurt others. Help us to be like the father in our story who was filled with joy when his son returned and said sorry. Fill our hearts with your love so that we can forgive people who upset us. Teach us to be happy when we forgive. We make our prayer through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Night night, sleep well, God bless x
